EVANGELIZATION PARISH CELL SYSTEM THE REASONS BEHIND THE SYSTEM

THE SYSTEM

The system is a comprehensive structure which always reports to the Parish Priest. Each part of this structure has a mutual relationship and dependence on every other part. By means of an appropriate organisational structure, his system contributes to the development of the living body which is the Church.

THE CELL

The cell is the fundamental unit of biology, endowed with life and with the potential to bring new life into being by the process of multiplication. By analogy, the Cell of Evangelization is a small group of people held together by the bonds of "OIKOS", which seeks to evangelize and to create disciples, i.e. to bring Jesus, the True Life, to others. As it grows in numbers, the Cell multiplies, giving birth to a daughter Cell.

PARISH

The fabric of which the Cell System forms part is precisely the Parish Community, defined by John Paul II in Christifideles Laici as the "Community of faith and physical community in which the Parish Priest is the organisational link to the whole Church". (n° 26)

EVANGELIZATION

"The Church exists for the purpose of evangelization" as Paul VI reminds us in Evangelium Nuntiandi. In the same way the cell, "the Church in miniature", rediscovers and brings to life this fundamental vocation: SHARE JESUS WITH OTHERS.

A Community in continuous renewal through an experience called the “Parish Cell System of Evangelization”

INVITES YOU

to its 14th INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP,
from 24 to 29 June 2003.

The “Parish Cell System of Evangelisation” is a parish organisation based on small groups whose prime objective is Evangelisation.

During the Workshop, Cardinal Dionigi Tettamanzi, Archbishop of Milan, will be present.

FOR THOSE PRIESTS WHO ALREADY LIVE THE EXPERIENCE OF CELLS OF EVANGELISATION AND WHO WISH TO SHARE WITH OTHERS THEIR PASTORAL DIFFICULTIES, SPECIFIC MOMENTS FOR REFLECTION AND DISCUSSION WILL BE SET ASIDE.

The Lay Christians, just because of their membership to the Church, have the vocation and the mission to be Gospel’s Announcers: they are qualified and engaged into this job by the Christians initiation Sacrament and by the Holy Spirit gifts.

The Church mission, in the Evangelization, is concentrated and spreaded out and her historical way winds under Jesus Christ’s grace and command: “Go all over the World and preach the Gospel to everybody”. (Mc 16.15)

(Christifideles Laici n. 33)

“To evangelize is the Great Commission of the Church and its deepest identity”.

(Evangelii Nuntiandi n. 14)
