

Scout Blue and Gold Dinner
Desert Canyon Middle School Cafeteria
Wednesday, February 27, 2002

You are cordially invited to attend the Annual Scout Blue and Gold Dinner being hosted by BSA Pack 344 on Wednesday, February 27, from 6 pm to 8:30 pm in the Desert Canyon Middle School Cafeteria.

A fun-filled evening is being planned to celebrate the birthday of scouting. This event will begin promptly at 6 pm on February 27 and will provide you with an opportunity to socialize with fellow scout families, enjoy a wonderful dinner prepared by the Scottsdale Carrabbas Italian Grill, watch proudly as our boys receive their scouting awards, and be entertained by our special guest, Gary The Singing Cowboy. What a great way to spend an evening – among friends and family!!

This event is a wonderful way to show your support for both your son and BSA Pack 344, so don't delay in ordering your tickets for this fun-filled evening. Tickets are $8 each with children under three admitted free. Please order your tickets now for moms, dads, siblings, relatives, friends and neighbors who would like to attend this event!! No ticket needed for your scout – their tickets will be provided compliments of Pack 344.

In addition to the program and entertainment planned for the evening's event, we will be holding a raffle. Don't miss this opportunity to support your Pack and have a chance to win some great gifts. Raffle tickets are just $1.00 per chance so buy several to increase your chances of being a winner!! Order your raffle tickets when you place your order for dinner tickets by returning the Ticket Order Form below along with your payment to your son's scout leader by 2/13/2002.
