

Voices from the Storm

Spotsylvanians Caught Amidst Civil War

Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania
National Military Park
and
The Congregation of Massaponax
Baptist Church

A dramatic program in the dramatic setting of a wartime refuge--the sanctuary of Massaponax Baptist Church.

Saturday, March 28, 2009
5 p.m. & 7 p.m.

Members of the community and the National Park Service come together to tell the story of Spotsylvania County's residents during the Civil War. Using a vivid historic setting, music, images, and the words of the people who lived here--both slave and free--"Voices from the Storm" will portray a community amidst four years of struggle.

In the sanctuary of historic Massaponax Baptist Church, Spotsylvania County.

Admission is free. Seating is limited to about 150 for each presentation.

