

The McLemans' Photo "Circular" - Christmas 2010

This is the view of The Empire State Building from our hotel bedroom window

- Welcome to our photo update for 2010. August was the most significant month this year for Andrew's first and Annie's third grandchild Murray was born and we also took our USA trip.
- We spent a fantastic week and a half with Steve and Chase in New Hampshire, then on to fabulous New York for four days.

...Then of course back to see our wonderful new grandson.

...and Best wishes for 2011

Proud parents Alison and Neill in the hospital in Livingston with baby Murray born on 1st August

Murray aged 4 months

Murray with Uncle Ewan

Happy chap Murray aged 3 months

Granddad with Murray

Murray aged 2 months

Murray visited Granddad's office

First Halloween with Alison and Neill

January 2010to...

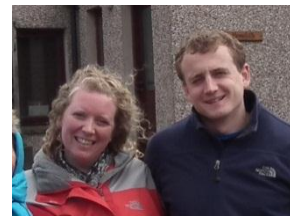

..... December 2010 (luckily the other 10 months were snow free!)

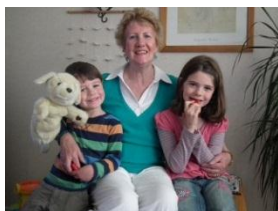

New careers in 2010 - Annie became a music hall artiste and Andrew became Father Ted!

Annie met Wallace and Gromit (although not pictured)

Anna and Ewan when we visited Shetland in June

Annie with her grandchildren Cody and Tia in Orkney in June

With all the family in the summer

Then on to New York, Annie and Andrew on the viewing gallery of the Empire State Building

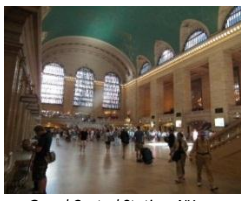

Times Square (above) and to the right the Statue of Liberty

Annie with our wonderful hosts Henry, Eilidh and Chase in New Hampshire

We were lucky to be there on Henry's very first day and Eilidh's first day back to school

Grand Central Station, NY, incredible!

That iconic New York view from the Staten Island ferry