

So Deep (Track 7 on Twenty Two Years)

So deep and wide, dare not to cross
Swallow my pride, all is not lost
Bluer than blue, moon shadows fall
Oceans I've known, to you I call

I've traveled far, and I ought to know
But questions remain, and I seem to tread water but...

Stars in the night, moon shadows fall
Hope I sleep tight, to you I call
When all is done, and all is said
Nothing I know, nothing I dread

I've traveled far, and I ought to know
But questions remain, and I seem to tread water but...

So deep and wide, dare not to cross
Swallow my pride, all is not lost
Swallow my pride, all is not lost
