DESCENT FROM DEACON RICHARD PLATT OF WARE, HERTFORDSHIRE, ENGLAND, WHO IN 1639 SETTLED IN MILFORD, CONNECTICUT

"Richard Platt's religious beliefs were profound and Puritan in character. The sincerity and depth of his religious feelings are shown by his will where he took great pains to provide a Bible for 24 of his living grandchildren." "The fact...that he left by will a Bible to each of his...grandchildren, shows in rough pioneer days how sincere and earnest he was in his Christian profession and life, and that he regarded the Divine Word as a precious legacy to his descendants."
