

Lion King Day Trip

Like a stampede, theatre goers have overwhelmed the box office at Disney's smash hit THE LION KING Avant-garde director and costume designer Julie Taymor has created remarkable masks to convey the classic characters of Scar, Mufasa, and Simba. This is a visually stunning celebration of modern theater with captivating music and lyrics by Tim Rice and Elton John. The New York Times says, "There is simply nothing else like it."

The Lion King is leaving January 4, 2004 - so if you want to catch it before it leaves Toronto, this is your chance!
