Parish Mission Statement

We the People of St. Ignatius Loyola Parish as a Roman Catholic Community are called to help one another build the Kingdom of God in Hicksville. We draw strength from the Sacraments, Prayer and the Celebration of the Word and the Eucharist. Our mission, rooted in the example and teaching of Jesus, is to bring friendship, compassion and healing across our diverse community. We do this by promoting an active faith as we provide opportunities for lifelong Catholic education, service and the development of lay leadership and ministries.

Gospel for next Sunday, March 23, 2014
Third Sunday of Lent

Theme: Jesus is the Living Water

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Gospel, the short form Jn 4:5-42 [5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42]

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob’s well was there.. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.” His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, “How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?” —For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.—Jesus answered and said to her, “If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.” The woman said to him, “Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?” Jesus answered and said to her, “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water. “I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem.” Jesus said to her, “Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth.” The woman said to him, “I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything.” Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one who is speaking with you.” Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him. When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, “We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world.”

Step One: Listen to the Word—In this long story, what image or scene did you see in your mind’s eye? What phrase or word caught your ear?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: How do you experience Jesus helping and loving you?

Question for Youth: Jesus revealed himself to an outcast of society. How can you be “living water” to the outcasts of your school? Society? The world?

Question for Adults: When you are tempted to try to satisfy your “thirst for meaning” through some other means, what keeps you coming back to the living water of intimacy with Christ? Through what means do you experience Christ’s power in your life: Sacraments? Scripture? Prayer? Others?

On ALL Fridays of Lent, all Catholics who have reached their 14th year should ABSTAIN entirely from meat. On Good Friday, Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59, inclusive, are also bound to observe the law of fast, limiting oneself to a single full meatless meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meatless meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day.

SACRIFICIAL GIVING

Sunday, March 9, 2014 $16,648
Church In Need $ 3,518
Ash Wednesday $ 2,341

Sunday, March 10, 2013 $16,688

When was the last time you looked at your face in a mirror. Often, we wear a variety of emotional and personal masks that often hide the real us. We have masks for work, home, for church. We are often terrified of criticism, rejection, not being liked and intrusion. We so much want to be in control of our lives and to have approval, we will go to any extent to hide the real us.

On this Second Sunday of Lent, Jesus begins to reveal who he is to his disciples in the Transfiguration. He and the disciples have journeyed up to the Mountain (Mt. Tabor or Mt. Hermon), when Jesus' face becomes dazzling white and very clear. The disciples are witnessing that Jesus' full identity is not only human but also divine. He gives them a brief glimpse of his resurrection to prepare them to enter into his Passion and Death. He wants to make sure that as they gaze on his face and listen to his word, they will be given grace and strength for the future.

When we venture deep inside ourselves, we too can catch a glimpse of the people we truly are, underneath all of the layers of the experiences in life and our masks. We are all God's children made in God's special image and designed to live a joyful life with wholeness. Don't we want to see the real us, or are we sad or guilty of what we shall see. Thomas Merton once wrote "Unless we discover this deep self, which is hidden with Christ in God, we will never really know ourselves as persons. Nor will we know God."

During this second week of Lent, may we remove our masks and see our real self. Allow the light of Christ to touch the depths of our hearts so that all of our fears, feelings, desires, excitements, thoughts and dreams become clear. If there is some quality we don't like, take it to God. Always remember that no matter what we see, God don't make junk.

One way to uncover our real self is through celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation. You also may know it as Confession or Penance. Christ Jesus is present through the priest to listen, forgive, heal and challenge us to "go and sin no more" (Jn 8: ). We need not be afraid to tell the priest any of our sins because God never tires of forgiving us. He is not going to yell at us or tell us we are bad. Scripture tells us "if you have sinned, do not lose heart. We have Jesus Christ to plead for us with the Father" (1 Jn 1:1).

Join us at St. Ignatius Loyola, where we celebrate the sacrament on Saturdays at 4pm, First Fridays at 6pm, during our Mission March 31-April 1) and during Holy Week. If these times are inconvenient for you and your family or friends, you may always stop and talk to the priest on call. Please make use of this sacrament, because it is one of the best kept secrets in our Catholic Church. Pope Francis and I do. A Psychologist, who is Jewish, once said, "I don't understand why Catholics don't go to Confession. However, if they went, I would be out of a job!" Sometimes we need to hear from someone on the outside of the Church to appreciate a gift that is right before us. Take advantage this Lent and let the real you stand up!

LENT OUR PARISH PRAYER FOR LENT 2014

Jesus, I know that I am yours and you are mine forever.
I thank you for sending your Spirit to me
That I might have the power to live this new life with you.
Stir up your Spirit within me. Release your Spirit within me.
Baptize me with the fullness of your Spirit
That I might experience your presence and power in my life;
That I might find new meaning in the Scriptures;
That I might find new strength in the sacraments;
That I might find delight and comfort in prayer;
That I might be able to love as you love, and forgive as you forgive;
That I might discover and use the gifts you give me for the life of the Church;
That I might experience the peace and the joy that you have promised.
Fill me with your Spirit, Lord Jesus. I wish to receive all that you offer me.
And open the hearts of those that have fallen away that they might be home more often with you this Lent. Amen

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families. St. Ignatius, pray for us!

Human Services Food Drive

Please bring any items that match the first letter of your last name to next weekend Masses, March 22nd - 23rd. Thank you for your generosity!

- A—F breakfast cereal, apple sauce, toothpaste
- G—K peanut butter and jelly, canned beef stew, bar soap
- L—Q pop-top Chef Boy-R-Dee spaghetti/ravioli, deodorant
- R—V canned corn, kidney beans, fruit salad, shampoo
- W—Z rice, tuna, disposable razors

Donations of Pampers diapers (sizes 4, 5, 6) would also be appreciated!

We need volunteers to help with our parish food drive. Sign up sheets are in the back of the Church this weekend. All that's required is that you arrive 15 minutes early. Stand by your assigned door and welcome all who enter with a warm greeting. You will be needed to assist with placing the food donations in the labeled bins on the altar.

At the conclusion of Mass, your help will be needed to bring the food to the food pantry in the convent basement and put it away. Thanks so much for your help, May God Bless You!

PLEASE

HELP US!

Next year the Religious Education Office will be looking to begin a High School Catechesis Program for students in grades 9 through 12 who have never taken Religious Education classes and need to make their First Holy Communion and/or prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation. In order to put this program in place, we will need a Coordinator and Catechists. If you are interested in sharing your faith with the children of our parish in this program, please call Colleen at the Religious Education Office at 935-6873. Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought For the Week

"Bear your share of the hardship which the gospel entails," St Paul tells Timothy in today's second reading. What sacrifice is asked of me for the sake of the Gospel? How willing am I to bear my share?

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all STEWARDS in our parish who use the season of lent as an opportunity to fast, pray and give alms, seeking neither recognition or applause for their effort.

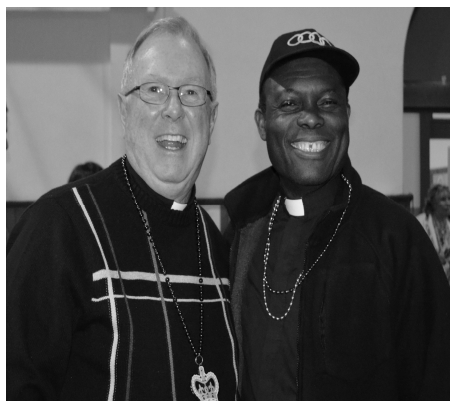

In the Gospel, Jesus is transfigured and a voice from heaven said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased-Listen to Him."

Do we listen to Jesus when He asks us to take care of our brothers and sisters who are suffering? Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Boxes will help the poor to celebrate the grace of God's love this Easter.

Mardi Gras

We all had a great time at the Mardi Gras held at St. Ignatius on March 1st. The crowd was great and below are pictures for your enjoyment.

A Show of Epic Proportions

The story of Moses is the story of one of the most important figures in the Old Testament. He is central to the Book of Exodus, the Ten Commandments, the 10 Plagues of Egypt and his birth story has the elements typical of a great legendary hero. Raised in the court of the Pharaoh in Egypt, Moses then led the Hebrew people out of Egypt.
