Theme: We must love one another.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Second Reading from St. John Jn 4:11-16

Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another. No one has ever seen God. Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is brought to perfection in us. This is how we know that we remain in him and he in us, that he has given us of his Spirit. Moreover, we have seen and testify that the Father sent his Son as savior of the world. Whoever acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him and he in God. We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us. God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him

Step One: Listen to the Word

Hearing these words of St. John proclaimed once again, what single word or phrase catches your ear today? Which line of this reading can you repeat from memory?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: Whom do you love? Who loves you? How do you show your love?

Question for Youth: How would you describe the kind of love that Jesus modeled?

Question for Adults: Share about one person in your life with whom the command to love has become a reality, a parent, spouse, friend, or colleague – or even a stranger.

Pastor's Corner

6th Sunday of Easter
Jn 15:9-17
Mother's Day

Beginning this Sunday and continuing for the 2nd Sunday of each month, we will highlight a different ministry that we offer here at St. Ignatius Loyola in the Pastor's Corner. It is by our Baptism that we are incorporated into the Body of Christ, His Church and we are sent on Christ's mission to spread his message of love, healing and service. Each of us has a responsibility to live out our baptism not only by going to church on Sundays, but also by being involved in our parish in serving out her mission.

Today, we are focusing on the Ministry of Consolation. Pam Flanagan is our coordinator and I invite her now to explain just what this ministry is all about. Please consider this ministry as a way to help build and serve St. Ignatius Loyola

The Ministry of Consolation consists of a group of dedicated volunteers who seek to assist and hopefully bring some comfort to fellow parishioners during the wake and funeral of their loved ones. We have been doing this since 1996 and we need help if we are to continue.

There are four ways in which you can assist us:

- 1-Companion—goes to the wake, brings a card and cake and expresses condolences on behalf of the parish.
- 2-Greeters—attend the funeral Mass, run off booklets and escort family members who are reading or bringing up the gifts
3. Computer people—make up a master program containing the readings and hymns selected by the family, only very basic computer skills are needed.
- 4.Co-ordinators— take the phone calls from the rectory regarding funerals and assign the companions, greeters and computer people.

You may choose to do all or one of these tasks.

As you can see from the above, none of these things are difficult. I am sure you have all gone to wakes and funerals and reached out to friends and relatives. This is the same, except you are now reaching out to fellow parishioners on behalf of our parish and showing care and consideration. You will be given training and all of our members will be glad to assist you. We especially appeal to anyone who has been touched by our ministry and would like to do the same for others.

As stated above, we are in desperate need of volunteers and if you could assist, please call the rectory at 931-0056. This is truly not difficult, but is very satisfying on many levels.

CONGRATULATIONS TO FR. BENJAMIN ON RECEIVING A DOCTORATE

Fr. Benjamin recently received his Doctorate in Ministry on Thursday April, 30, 2015 from The Hebrew University in Manhattan. Our prayers and joy are with him as he celebrates this momentous occasion. Even though, he is now a Doctor, Fr. Ben still wants to be called Father!

May God bless you Fr. Ben. Ad Multos Annos! To many years, many happy returns!

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

Fr. Jim, Pastor

May is the Month We Honor Mary!

*The Saint Anne
Mother's Prayer Group
invites all parishioners to join in paying homage to Mary,
the Mother of our Lord
and Savior, Christ Jesus,
as she is crowned with flowers
to the accompaniment of

PASTORAL COUNCIL
Fr. James T. Stachacz, Pastor

Elizabeth Fitzgibbon
Jaime Aldana
John Crayne
Kevin Stoltz

Bruce Wimbiscus
Joe Malerba
Kieran Sullivan

“The Council serves as a forum of consultation for the pastor and members, primarily by engaging them in ongoing dialogue about the needs, feelings, hopes and reactions of parishioners.”

Guidelines for Pastoral Councils #B-2

Please feel free to contact any council member at any time regarding your needs, feelings, hopes and reactions. All council members can be reached through the rectory office.

Happy Mother's Day to all our Mothers!

As a way to celebrate, please reflect on these 10 things that make for A GREAT CATHOLIC MOM!

- 1) Trust in God – God is with us every step of the way. Jesus is with us till the end of time (Mt 28:20)
- 2) Celebrate –Celebrate Sundays as a family by going to church. Make a “no technology time until noon!”
- 3) Cultivate Support –Share your ups and downs with other moms. Join our St. Anne’s Mother’s Prayer Group on Monday evenings at 7:30pm.
- 4) Make Every Day Holy –Gather around the table each day say a prayer and share a meal.
- 5) Grow in Faith –Go to a catechism class, say the rosary, pray the Scriptures, like the Psalms each day.
- 6) Go Against the Grain –Say NO when you mean NO even when our culture says yes. Don’t be afraid to say no to certain movies and song lyrics.
- 7) Let Go and Let God –The goal of motherhood is not to SMOTHER our children, rather it is to prepare them to be a happy, healthy, faith-filled individual.
- 8) Admit Imperfections –No mother is perfect. Acknowledge your mistakes to your children, spouse, neighbors and coworkers. We are all sinners.
- 9) Share and Share Alike –Cultivate a spirit of giving with your family. Donate toys and clothing to Human Services or St. Vincent DePaul.
- 10) Laugh! Don’t take Life Too Seriously-Learn to laugh with your children. One mother said that when it is a day to where she can either cry or laugh, she chooses to laugh. When something stresses you out say “stay with me Jesus.”

Jane's Garden Family

Welcome Back!

We would like to thank those gardeners who have already begun planting.

Since we had such a long, very cold winter, some areas may need a little extra help before planting. We are fortunate as there does not seem to be any major damage to the gardens.

If anyone is NOT coming back this year, we would appreciate a call as soon as possible. Gene will be replacing the signs soon, and it would be helpful to know before he does.

The garden around the Saint Joseph’s statue is in need of someone, or a group to take over. This is a very shady area and plants that do well under these conditions are recommended. Any suggestions?

We are always in need of new members to join the garden family. Simply call us at home (516) 433-8037 and leave a message if we are not there, or call the rectory and someone will contact us.

Hoping to see you in the garden!

Judy and Gene Sebastiano

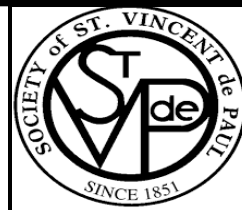

The Parish Trip to the Biltmore Estate and Asheville, NC was a huge success....just ask anyone who went! The 24 people on this trip were strangers at its start and ended up as friends. The sights were beautiful and Kenny, the bus driver, was wonderful.

Barbara and Karen wish to extend heartfelt thanks especially to Marilyn and Judy Hoeg who filled in as leaders at a moment's notice. Their attention to detail and their thoughtfulness certainly played a large role in making the trip the success that it was. The parish benefited by over $708. When you see him, ask Fr. Jim about his springtime adventure!

Please join us in the Church at 8:30am from May 15th to May 23rd for a Novena to the Holy Spirit.

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us, "This is my commandment: love one another as I have loved you.... You are my friends, if you do what I Command you."

By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you fulfill the commandment to love one another as Jesus has loved you.

On Tuesday, May 5th, Holy Water Bottles were distributed at St. Ignatius Loyola Church. They were donated by The Torrellas Family in memory of

He was beloved husband, father, brother, uncle, in-law, friend and coach

Also in memory of

Marion (McGrath) Torrellas

She was beloved mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend.

No words can say how much we love and miss you both everyday.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office. We pray to give all of our soldiers the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

BLANCO VI DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Editado por Ytala y Gabriel

REFLEXIÓN

El evangelio de hoy, el del mandamiento nuevo, el mandamiento del AMOR. Pocas palabras deben saturarnos tanto en el lenguaje cotidiano como ésta: «amor». La escuchamos en la canción de moda, en la conductora superficial de un programa de televisión, en el lenguaje político, en referencia al sexo, en la telenovela... Se usa en todos los ámbitos, y en cada uno de ellos significa algo diferente. ¡Pero, sin embargo, la palabra es la misma!

El amor de Jesús no es el que busca su placer, su «sentir», o su felicidad sino el que busca la vida, el sacrificio, la felicidad de aquellos a quienes amamos. Nada es más liberador que el amor; nada hace crecer tanto a los demás como el amor, nada es más fuerte que el amor. Y lo aprendemos del mismo Jesús que con su ejemplo nos enseña que «la medida del amor es amar sin medida».

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought for the Week

Jesus' commandment is that His disciples love one another, even to the point of laying down their lives, if necessary. What gifts of myself-my skills and talents, my time and resources-will best demonstrate my love for God's people?.

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all STEWARDS in our parish who seek out new opportunities to share their gifts to serve others through parish ministries such as Pre-Cana and Baptismal Preparation.

BOOK TALK

Come hear Fr. John Morrison speak about the novels of Michael O'Brien.

Where: Seminary of the Immaculate Conception (4th floor)
440 West Neck Road, Huntington
(3 miles north of Main Street)

When: Sunday, May 17th
Time 2pm to 4pm

Fr. Morrison says of Michael O'Brien, "as a confessing orthodox Christian (Roman Catholic) who writes with power and grace, he needs to be better known.

No registration is required and refreshments will be served. For more information, please call (631)423-0483, Ext. 141.

Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. May 16th-17th

Next week you will have the opportunity to participate in the Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. Collection proceeds support a wide variety of media projects that spread the gospel message and connect communities and individuals to their faith and to the Church. Please contribute generously in the Collection, and visit <http://www.usccb.org/nationalcollections>; <http://www.usccb.org/nationalcollections>; for more information. Remember, half of the collected funds stay right here to support diocesan media projects.

La próxima semana usted tendrá la oportunidad de participar en la Colecta para la Campaña Católica de la Comunicación. Lo recaudado en la Colecta apoya una gran variedad de proyectos de comunicación que propagan el mensaje del evangelio y conectan a las comunidades y a las personas a su fe y a la Iglesia. Por favor, contribuya generosamente a la Colecta y visite <http://www.usccb.org/nationalcollections>; <http://www.usccb.org/nationalcollections>; para más información. Recuerde que la mitad de los fondos recaudados se quedan aquí para respaldar los proyectos diocesanos de comunicación.

Helping Protect Our Children

Assemblyman Michael Montesano is hosting Free Kidpix Programs to help protect the children of Nassau County! Assemblyman Montesano invites you to join him on:

May 15th from 2 to 4:30pm at the Oyster Bay/East Norwich Library, 89 East Main St., Oyster Bay

Participants will receive a free, wallet-sized Kidpix card with a picture, fingerprint and contact information. Photos and fingerprints will be prepared on-site for parents to take home.

In the event that a child goes missing, parents can provide the Kidpix card to law enforcement officers as a tool to help return the child home more quickly.
