

The Rosary Hour hosted Lucian Krolkowski, OFM Conv. who was in town to autograph his book, Stolen Childhood which details the war time saga of thousands of Polish children deported to Soviet Russia and thereafter left virtually homeless. The 273 page book is in four parts and two appendices: Part I - Deportation to Russia (73 pages), Part II - In Africa (108 pages), Part III - Through Europe (32 pages), Part IV - In Canada (44 pages), Appendix A - Additional accounts of the Orphans (8 pages), Appendix B - In Other Parts of the World (24 pages)

Father Lucian lectured and had a book signing at Erie Community College, North Campus on April 20 on his recent book, Memories of a Siberian Prisoner and a Displaced Person . He worked for many years as a member of the editorial staff of the Rosary Hour. At 90, he resides in Chicopee, Massachusetts where he serves as a spiritual director, homilist, confessor and lecturer.
