

Commandant's Message

October 2007

Marines,

At the last meeting, much was discussed. Lee Cox from Tar Heel Detachment came and spoke about Toys for Tots. Joe Goodrow gave information about the upcoming Marine Corps Ball. The pending elections for detachment officers as well as the upcoming Marine Corps League Department of North Carolina meetings were discussed. Well, the department meetings have passed. (We were well represented there.) Now it is time to focus.

Men, our meeting attendance has started to wane in the last couple months. Summer vacations have passed and it is time to get back in the saddle. With Toys for Tots and the Marine Corps Birthday Ball on the near horizon, there is much to be done. In addition to that, the election of detachment officers needs your input.

We have had a busy and successful first year as a detachment, and it is still not over yet. When all is said and done, Marines never let it be said that someone else had to shoulder our load. Our new building will be open any day, and our newest member will be walking through the door at any moment. Be on hand for both. Be able to look back and say "I was there and I made a difference."

Semper Fi,

Jerry Dangler
