

CONTENTS

Publisher's Note	3
From the Editor	4
Reflections on the Race Problem in Cuba
Black Intellectuals and a Recovered Identity	6
Manuel Cuesta Morúa
The Paradigm's Color	12
José Hugo Fernández
A Black Cuban Woman's 'Room of Her Own'	17
Yesenia Selier
José Martí and the Future of Blacks	21
Miguel Cabrera Peña
The Frozen Image	32
Melquiades Montenegro
Bridges to Memory	34
Victor Manuel Domínguez
Profiles
Manuel Cuesta Morúa	36
Leonardo Calvo Cárdenas
Art and Literature
Queloides: Race and Racism	43
María I. Faguaga
Trampling the Silence	52
Juan Antonio Madrazo
Beyond a Feeling	55
Jorge Olivera Castillo
Alexis Cardona: Rescuing History and Identity	58
Rogelio Montesinos
Parallel Views
Is Cuban National Identity Weakening?
Are There Cultural Identities?	61
Lourdes Chacón Núñez
Cuba: From Civil Society to Open Society	70
Armando Añel
Racism and Injustices in Cuban Prisons	74
Dr. Darsi Ferrer
Key West Remembers the Middle Passage	76
Dinizulu Gene Tinnie
Prisoners of Color
Francisco Herodes Díaz Echemendía	78
Juan del Pilar Goberna

Cover:
Installation
Alexis Cardona
Santiago de Cuba