

CONTENTS

Publisher's Note	3
From the Editor	4
Reflections on the Race Problem in Cuba
Independent Party of Color: A Debt with Truth and History	9
Leonardo Calvo Cárdenas
Skirting 1912	15
Manuel Cuesta Morúa
"1912: Anatomy of a Silence"	23
Roberto Castell
A Commitment to Equality and Justice	27
Eleanor Calvo Martínez
From Scream to Silence	30
Juan Antonio Madrazo Luna
The Rebellion of the Independents of Color: Things that Need Clarification	34
José Antonio Fornaris
Real Unity	36
Hildebrando Chaviano Montes
Keeping Alive the Spirit of the Independents of Color	38
Moisés Leonardo Rodríguez
Historical Justice for an Unknown Hero	41
Rogelio Montesinos
Dreading Dreadlocks in Havana	45
José Hugo Fernández
The Mulatto Woman: She Looks White... but is She?	51
Víctor Manuel Domínguez García
Afro-Cuban Women in Search of Their Own Imaginary	56
Lucas Garve
Interview
Juan Antonio Madrazo. National Coordinator of the Citizens' Committee for Racial Integration	58
Pablo P. Méndez
Tributes
Georgina Herrera: A Genuine Cimarron	62
Jorge Olivera Castillo
Cimarrons of Their Own Accord	65
Melquiades Montenegro
Book Review
Fear of Blacks (I)	69
María I. Faguaga Iglesias
Prisoners of Color
Grievous Abyss II	78
Guillermo Ordóñez Lizama

Cover:
Citizens' Committee for Racial Integration