

The Green Pajamas

Hidden Agenda Records presents a Green Pajamas primer: A "favorites" collection from our revered Seattle psych-popsmiths, featuring tracks from their previous four albums selected by the band, plus an amped-up, completely new recording of their classic "Kim the Waitress". This 14 song compendium represents their finest work since their "creative renaissance", which began with their re-emergence in 1996 with the album 'Strung Behind the Sun', followed by 'All Clues Lead to Megan's Bed' from 1998, 1999's 'Seven Fathoms Down And Falling', through 'This Is Where We Disappear' in 2001, and includes two tracks from their 'Narcotic Kisses' collection from 2002. Revered by fans for nearly two decades, The Green Pajamas continue to build an enthusiastic grass roots base the old fashioned way: word-of-mouth. Best known as the composers of Material Issue's hit "Kim the Waitress", this Seattle based quintet continues its seven-year burst of activity (four albums, a rarities collection, and several EPs released since their re-emergence in 1996), with a new Green PJs album in early 2004 on Hidden Agenda Records.

Through Glass Colored Roses

Kim The Waitress (2003)
Death By Poisoning
Rattlesnake Kiss
Just Another Perfect Day
She Doesn't Love You Anymore
Sweet Moth
High Waving Heather
Downslide
Queen Of Sunshine
These Are The Best Times
She's Still Bewitching Me
The Secret Of Her Smile
Tomorrow Will Bring Rain
This Is Where We Disappear

"Seattle's Green Pajamas can be seen as a more serious equivalent to XTC side project the Dukes Of Stratosphear; both bands deal in subtle twists of '60s psychedelia...the Green Pajamas have a more earnest, folksy sound. By backing down from overt '60s references they've created a wonderful hybrid: a serious, modern equivalent to '60s folk and psychedelia." --- ALL MUSIC GUIDE

Through Glass Colored Roses: the best of The Green Pajamas

CD Album | A Hidden Agenda Record | AHA!061 | 795306506126 | 02 Dec 03

Parasol Publicity * Michael Roux * promo@parasol.com * phone 217.344.8609