

They've followed the yellow and purple brick road to UNA, and have found, there's

No place like home

By Cheryl Myrick

Photography by Jim Hannon

Leaving home for the first time is always daunting. But what if you had the chance to live on the same floor with 23 of your closest friends?

At Appleby East and West residence halls, the four sororities at the University of North Alabama have this opportunity, and, apparently, they love every minute of it.

"Where else in the world can you do that?" asks Julie Yates, president of Alpha Gamma Delta. "No apartment or house can boast that."

"There are always friends there to cook with, study with, hang out, have movie nights; the possibilities are endless," says Lauren Jett, president of Zeta Tau Alpha.

"This is our home away from home and the center focal point for our sisterhood."

Jennifer Noel, president of Alpha Delta Pi, agrees.

Top: Alpha Gamma Delta chapter room.

Middle: Zeta Tau Alpha chapter room.

Bottom: Phi Mu chapter room.

