

April 17, 2002

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation for Molly Person. I have known Molly since my arrival at Southern Virginia University in Fall 2000. She has been a student of mine in the Conducting Fundamentals, Advanced Instrumental Conducting, and Music History classes. I was also her instructor for applied conducting lessons. In these associations, Molly has shown herself to be a talented conductor, an articulate writer and speaker, and a dedicated student overall. Molly is also a believer in Southern Virginia University and its mission, evidenced by her service as a Student Association leader and by her commitment to remaining at SVU to complete her undergraduate education. I believe that she will represent SVU well in her future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Mark Taylor