

Molly Person's Future Family Creed

We will love, honor and respect each other. We will be obedient to each other. We will not verbally nor physically torment each other. We will not gossip about each other. Any disagreements will be promptly worked out. No one will go to bed angry. We will make our home comfortable so that all may feel welcome.

We will strive to live the principles of the gospel of Jesus Christ. We will serve and love others as he did. We believe in having family prayer and scripture study everyday. We will set apart one night a week as a family night to learn from each other and enjoy each other's company.

We will raise our children with the utmost faith and trust in them. We will give them the freedom to develop at their own pace. We will give our children the freedom to live their own life. We will teach them the principles and allow them to govern themselves.

We will strive to make our home filled with love and our foundation will be Jesus Christ.
