

“Famous as no artist ever had been, he was a pioneer, a master and a protean monster of the century.”

Robert Hughes, Time 100

“He is the last artist in this century...who will have been a real king during his life time”

Robert Motherwell, artist

Pablo Picasso was the legendary artist that was a part of almost every art movement of the 20th century. His work in cubism, dada and surrealism has had the most impact on the budding art world. His ingenious in movements from cubism to pop art to graphic art is revolutionary, thus earning the subtitle of this book, the jack of all arts.
